

Provisional Conference Programme

Thursday 03.07.2014

09.00	Opening of the conference
	Welcome by Dawn/Representatives of the University
	Welcome by Rudi
09.30-11.00	General aspects of pluricentricity Rudolf Muhr  Danica Salazar  Leigh Oakes	The role of dictionaries and books of reference in maintaining linguistic dominance  The vocabulary of non-dominant varieties of English in the Oxford English Dictionary  Repatriating the norm. Pluricentric linguistic justice in Quebec
11.00-11.30	Break
11.30-13.00	Rias Van den Doel Tanja Wissik  Pragmatics Catrin Norrby/ Leo Kretzenbacher	Teaching the pronunciation of non-dominant varieties of English - the case of Irish English  How pluricentric is language for special purpose?  Micropragmatic phenomena in non-dominant varieties of German and Swedish – some methodological questions.
13.00-14.00	Lunch
14.00-15.00	Sofie Henricsson  Catrin Norrby, Camilla Wide et al.	Pronouns in linguistic supervision encounters in Sweden Swedish and Finland Swedish  Managing interpersonal relationships in Sweden-Swedish and Finland-Swedish service encounters
15.00-15.30	New pluricentric languages and plc varieties Aditi Ghosh	Bengali as a Pluricentric Language
15.30-16.00	Break
16.00-17.30	Nedad Memic  Salvatore del Gaudio  Gerhard Edelmann	Standard language in Bosnia-Herzegovina from a non-dominant variety to a co-existence of varieties  A variety in formation: morphosyntactic variation in U-Russian speech and press  Catalan as a Pluricentric Language – Problems of Definition

Friday 04.07.2014

8.30-09.00	Egger/Muhr et.al. Open source documentation of ND-varieties and endangered languages as free knowledge on the web : A Wikipedia/Wikimedia Project
Parallel sessions
	Spanish
09.00-10.30	Carla Amorós Negre  Juan Thomas  Cristina Martínez Sanz	The determination of standard variants - Language performance and attitudes in pluricentric Spanish  In search of a standard- Spanish in a small, upstate NY community  Syntactic variation and regional standards in a pluricentric language-relativisation strategies in Caribbean Spanish.
10.30-11.00	Break
11.00-13.00	Natividad Hernández Muñoz  Sara Gomez Seibane  Martina Schrader-Kniffki	The Spanish from La Mancha- construction of a non-dominant linguistic identity? Insights from linguistics attitudes of young speakers  Exploring the role of social networks and linguistic attitudes in a pluricentric language- null objects in Basque Spanish  Non-dominant Varieties in Contact with Dominant Varieties Norm-Oriented Representations and Attitudes of Peruvian Migrants in Spain
	Portuguese
09.00-10.30	Amalia Mendes  Eugênia Duarte  Jacqueline Le et al.	Pronominal constructions and indefinite reading in Varieties of Portuguese  Issues on codification process and standardization- the case of Brazilian Portuguese  The Variation in the Use of Personal Pronouns in the Spoken Language of the Bahian Semi-arid (in the 1990s)
10.30-11.00	Break
11.00-13.00	Ana Curvelo/Ana Simoes Alexandra Raquel Aline Bazenga  Susana Afonso/ Francesco Goglia	(Intra)linguistic diversity in Portuguese context  Maderian variety in Spoken European Portuguese: Perceptions of prestige and sociolinguistic awareness  The emergence of a non-dominant variety of Portuguese in East-Timor
13.00-14.00	Lunch
Parallel sessions
	Arabic
	Munirah Alajlan	Dominant and Non Dominant Varieties in Media. The Case of Diglossic Code Switching in Kuwait

	Adil Moustououi	Standardization or De(standardization) in Moroccan Arabic as a Pluricentric language
	Migrant pluricentricity
14.00-15.30	Máté Huber Anu Bissoonauth-Bedford Kelen Ernesta Fonyuy	Attitudes of speakers of non-dominant varieties of Hungarian towards their own variety and the dominant one Sociolinguistic relationships between French, English and local languages in New Caledonia Functional dominance in non-dominant varieties of Cameroon English pronunciation
15.30-16.00	Break
16.00-17.30	Sara Lariato Margherita di Salvo	Italian in Espirito Santo, Brazil Italian Heritage and Non-dominant varieties maintenance in two Italian Communities in England