Simon Thornley

Lectures:
- East Asian Cooperation: Conception (A European Perspective) (Aug. 4, 11:00 – 12:00)
- East Asian Cooperation: Influences Within (In Comparison with the EU) (Aug. 6, 08:30 – 09:30)
- East Asian Cooperation and the World (By Contrast with the EU) (Aug. 7, 09:45 – 10:45)

Simon Thornley is Lecturer in Law and Global Studies at Okayama University. Present during the 'bubble economy', the Fukushima Incident and increased tensions with China, he has a first-hand perspective on many recent events in East Asia. Born in London and raised in Canada, he trained as a city solicitor during London's 'big bang'. East Asia being an abiding interest, he then took a masters in Japanese at Sheffield. Appointed Associate Professor of Law at Niigata, then Okayama Universities, he has 20 years of experience here.
