Objectives: The objective of the course is to foster exchanges on foundational and methodological approaches as well as on contemporary and educational issues in nursing ethics.

Format: This course works from an interdisciplinary (philosophical, theological, nursing, clinical-ethical) perspective. During the course, national and international experts will give presentations on various topics in the domain of nursing ethics.

Participants: The course is of interest to participants from diverse professional backgrounds, such as nursing, medicine, philosophy and theology, health care administration, and PhD students undertaking courses of study in these areas. The intensive course Nursing Ethics is part of the Erasmus Mundus Master of Bioethics programme organised by a consortium of three European universities, namely the KU Leuven (Belgium), Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen (The Netherlands) and the Università degli Studi di Padova (Italy). Because of this combination, participants of the intensive course Nursing Ethics, will join Master students from all over the world.

Price: The course fee will be € 650 if you register and pay as a participant before October 15th 2012, € 750 for registration from October 15th 2012 onwards. This fee includes tuition and course materials, as well as refreshments, three lunches, a dinner and a concert in the Concert hall of Bruges. Detailed information on registration and payment can be found at our website www.masterbioethics.org under Intensive Courses.
