

Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Ethics, Healthy Ageing and Care

The 20th International Nursing Ethics Conference & the 5th International Care Ethics Conference

University of Surrey, Guildford, UK – 24th & 25th July 2019

PROGRAMME

Day 1	Wednesday 24th July	Location	Speakers
08.15	Registration & refreshments	Duke of Kent Building
09.10	Welcome	01-DK-03	Melaine Coward (Head of School) & Ann Gallagher
09.30	Keynote Lecture: The Summit of a Moral Pilgrimage: Confucianism on healthy ageing and social eldercare	01-DK-03	Jing-Bao Nie: University of Otago, New Zealand Chaired by Ann Gallagher
11.00	Tea & Coffee
11.30	Parallel Session 1	Duke of Kent Building
13.00	Lunch
14.00	Parallel Session 2	Duke of Kent Building
15.30	Tea & Coffee
16.00	Plenary Panel: Is it always ethical to prolong life?	01-DK-03	Ebin Arries, Sarah Wolfensohn, Catherine Joynson & Christopher Herbert Chaired by Joan McCarthy
17.30	Human Rights Award Ceremony	01-DK-03
19.30	Conference Dinner	Lakeside

Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Ethics, Healthy Ageing and Care

The 20th International Nursing Ethics Conference & the 5th International Care Ethics Conference

Day 2 Thursday 25th July

08.45	Registration & refreshments	Duke of Kent Building
09.30	Plenary Panel: What does good quality cross-cultural care look like?	01-DK-03	Settimio Monteverde, Simon Pedzisi, Michael Dunn & Chandra McGowan Chaired by Elizabeth Peter
11.00	Tea & Coffee
11.30	Parallel Session 3	Duke of Kent Building
13.00	Lunch
14.00	Parallel Session 4	Duke of Kent Building
15.30	Plenary Sexual expression in dementia care: philosophical and empirical perspectives & Seeing the individuality of older adults: ethical issues	01-DK-03	Chris Gastmans & Riitta Suhonen Chaired by Douglas Olsen
17.00	Reflections & Close	01-DK-03	Ann Gallagher