3. The title of the Competition is: World Space Week School Art Competition
4. The rules of the Competition and how to enter are as follows:

The competition is open to current schools students in primary and secondary education in Surrey and surrounding areas. Students from Key Stage 1 and 2 can enter the Mixed Media Art Competition. Students from Key Stage 3 and 4 can enter the Photography Art Competition
5. There is no entry fee and no purchase necessary to enter this Competition.
6. To enter the Competition, post your entry to: Dr Heather Campbell, SEPnet Outreach and Ogden Trust Officer, Department of Physics, University of Surrey, Guildford GU2 7XH, or email publicengagement@surrey.ac.uk
7. There is no limit to the number of entries you may post, however entrants can only win a maximum of one prize.
8. Entries may be made from 1st August 2019 until 5pm on 27th September 2019 (the "Closing Date"). After the Closing Date no further entries to the Competition will be accepted and will be disqualified.
9. The University will not accept responsibility for entries which are lost or not received by the Closing Date for any reason, including, for example, as a result of any equipment failure, technical malfunction, systems, satellite, network, server, computer hardware or software failure of any kind. The University will not accept proof of posting, transmission or equivalent as proof of receipt of entry to the Competition.
10. Entries must not infringe rights of any third-party, including for example copyright, trademarks, confidentiality or privacy.
11. The University reserves all rights to disqualify entrants if their conduct is contrary to the spirit or intention of the Competition, including without limitation by submitting entries which are discriminatory, abusive, contrary to principles of public decency or otherwise infringe any applicable laws.

12. The University reserves the right to cancel or amend the Competition and these terms and conditions without notice in the event of a catastrophe, war, civil or military disturbance, industrial action, natural disaster, fire or flood, any applicable law or regulation reasonably requiring such cancellation or amendment or any other circumstances outside of the University's reasonable control. Any changes to the Competition will be notified to entrants as soon as reasonably possible by the University.

13. The University is not responsible for inaccurate prize details supplied to any entrant by any third party connected with the Competition.

14. The prizes are as follows:

1st prize – Age appropriate Space-themed books plus voucher

2nd prize – Age appropriate Space-themed book plus voucher

3rd prize – Age appropriate Space-themed book plus voucher

15. Three main prizes will be awarded. The prizes are as stated and no cash or other alternatives will be offered. The prizes are not transferable. The prizes are subject to availability and the University reserves the right to substitute any of the prizes with another of equivalent value without notice.

16. The winners will be selected by a nominated person attending the Art Exhibition.

17. The winners will be announced on 5th October 2019 at the Prize Giving Ceremony, 4pm at Tunsgate Quarter, Guildford High Street. If winning entrants cannot attend the Prize Giving Ceremony, they will be notified by email by 8th October 2019. The University will notify the winners when they can collect their prize from the University. If a winner cannot be contacted or do not claim the prize within 2 days of notification, the University reserves the right to withdraw the prizes from that winner and award the prizes to the next eligible entry (the "substitute"), based on the second favourite entry, and so on. The University does not accept responsibility if the winners (or any substitute) do not claim the prize.

18. The University's decision in respect of all matters to do with the Competition will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

19. If you are a winner or runner up of the Competition, you/parent/guardian will be contacted for consent to further agree that the University may use your name and image to announce you as a winner in the Competition. The Competition winners will be contacted to ask for consent for the use of his/her name and image in any publicity material, as well as the publication of their winning entry.

20. Subject to the consent of the winners, the winners' winning entries will be available for a period of 30 days from 28 days after Closing Date by emailing the following address: publicengagement@surrey.ac.uk

21. Entrants agree that the University may make their entries available on its website and any other media and in connection with any publicity of the Competition. Entrants agree to grant the University a non-exclusive, worldwide, irrevocable licence, for the full period of any intellectual property rights in their Competition entry, to use, display, publish, transmit, copy, edit, alter, adapt, store, re-format and sub-licence the Competition entry for such purposes.

22. To the extent permitted by law, the University will not in any circumstances be responsible or liable to compensate the winner (or substitute prize winner) or accept any liability for any loss, damage, personal injury or death occurring as a result of that person taking up the prize, except where it is caused by the negligence of the University, its agents or distributors or that of their employees. The statutory rights of the winner and runners-up (or substitute) are not affected.

23. This promotion is in no way sponsored, endorsed or administered by, or associated with any other party. You are providing your information to the University and not to any other party. The information provided will be used in conjunction with the following Privacy Policy.

24. The University's decision as to those eligible to take part, the selection of the winners (or substitute) is final.

25. The University shall have the right, at its sole discretion and at any time, to change or modify these terms and conditions. Such change shall be effective immediately upon posting to this webpage.

30. The Competition and these terms and conditions will be governed by English law and any disputes will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England.
