Value Added Tax (VAT)

Value Added Tax (VAT) is not charged on accommodation fees where the reason for the stay is to attend a course (including short courses) being run by the University. VAT charges are determined by who will occupy the room and the reason for their stay not who books it. See additional notes below:

Prospective Students

If you are visiting us to attend an interview for admittance on a course VAT will not be charged.

Staff

VAT is charged on stays of up to 28 days. Where a member of staff stays for more than 28 continuous days the stay is treated as their main residence and no VAT is charged. Staff are individuals who are on the University Salary Payroll or employed on a regular basis through Unitemps.
