

OPEN RESEARCH PRACTICES

SURREY OPEN RESEARCH QUESTIONNAIRE 2020

Open Research is perceived as important

PERCEIVED AS MOST IMPORTANT OPEN RESEARCH PRACTICES

Open Data

Open Access

Despite high levels of awareness across open research practices, relatively few respondents had experience practicing them

PERCEIVED BARRIERS

Lack of dedicated funding

Lack of information or training

Lack of time

PERCEIVED INCENTIVES

Increased impact and visibility of research

Public benefit

Increased opportunities for collaboration

Transparency and re-use

65% HAVE A STRONG DESIRE FOR FURTHER
OPEN RESEARCH INFORMATION