

Schwartz Round – Rounds Lead

0.5 days per month

Schwartz Rounds provide a structured forum where all staff, clinical and non-clinical, come together regularly to discuss the emotional and social aspects of working in healthcare. The Schwartz Rounds are led by Rounds Leads who are trained by The Point of Care Foundation. The Schwartz Round - Rounds Lead role is outlined below.

The role	The Rounds Lead plays an important symbolic role, demonstrating the importance of attending to the emotional impact of care to the medical or clinical community. It helps if the Rounds Lead is a respected senior member of staff, with experience of working in pressured clinical settings (they will use this experience to engage the medical community at various levels and share their own experiences).
	The Rounds Lead works closely with the Facilitator(s) and undertakes a skilled co-facilitation role. It helps if they have some group work experience and an interest in staff experience.
Time	The Rounds Lead role requires approximately half a day a month.
	This time is taken up by finding panellists, attending the Steering Group meeting and facilitating the Round itself.
Responsibilities	• To co-facilitate the Rounds and ensure that they are run in accordance with the Schwartz model
	 To draw on personal experience and demonstrate a reflective stance
	 To champion the Rounds and represent them at senior levels in the organisation
	• To remain neutral and compassionate when faced with controversy in the Round.

Schwartz Round - Facilitator

1.5 days per month *

Schwartz Rounds provide a structured forum where all staff, clinical and non-clinical, come together regularly to discuss the emotional and social aspects of working in healthcare. The Schwartz Rounds are led by facilitators who are trained by The Point of Care Foundation. The Schwartz Round - Facilitator role is outlined below.

1	1
The role	The Facilitator undertakes a very skilled role, so it helps if they have experience of working with groups and managing difficult emotions. Often people with psychological or social work backgrounds suit this role.
	They will also need to have good knowledge of staff experience issues, the structure and the culture of the organisation.
Time	The Facilitator role requires approximately 1.5 days of work per month. *
	This time is taken up primarily by panel preparation, as well as Steering Group meetings and the Round itself.
Responsibilities	 To help panellists prepare their stories To help panellists and the audience share personal experiences in a public setting To ensure the Round is safe, confidential and given workable boundaries To open up a reflective discussion and attend to emotional aspects of care To help move away from the audience's natural desire to problemsolve To draw out meaning and themes underlying the stories To confidently manage challenge and uncertainty that can arise To maintain a neutral, curious and compassionate position.

* This estimation is calculated on the basis of being one of the Facilitators involved in co-facilitating the Round for that month. If the person is not facilitating the Round for that month, then the time for the role reduces to 0.5 hours per month.

Schwartz Round - Administrator

1 day per week *

Schwartz Rounds provide a structured forum where all staff, clinical and non-clinical, come together regularly to discuss the emotional and social aspects of working in healthcare. Schwartz Rounds require substantial organisation and administrative input, which should be undertaken by a member of staff within the host organisation. The Schwartz Round - Administrator role is outlined below.

The role	The Administrator plays an important organisational role, so they will need to be efficient. It helps if they have a genuine interest in staff experience and take ownership of the Schwartz Rounds. The smooth running of Rounds is important to them becoming embedded in the organisation.
Time	The Administrator role requires approximately one day per week. * This time is taken up primarily by preparing for the Rounds, helping to collate data and writing up feedback reports.
Responsibilities	 The Administrator works closely with the Facilitator, Rounds Lead and Steering Group. Their key duties are: To enable the efficient running of rounds To book rooms and organise the lunch To liaise with communications team about promoting the Rounds To co-ordinate steering group meetings and write up minutes To ensure the paperwork is ready for each Round To ensure that only staff attend and that they sign the confidentiality agreement To collect feedback sheets after each Round To enter the feedback into a database and help to populate a report.

* This estimation is calculated on the basis of running 3 Rounds per year and 10 Steering Group meetings per year, see Admin Model for further clarification.

Schwartz Round - Steering Group Member

0.5 days per month

Schwartz Rounds provide a structured forum where all staff, clinical and non-clinical, come together regularly to discuss the emotional and social aspects of working in healthcare. The Steering Group are an important resource in establishing and maintaining a successful a Schwartz Round programme in an organisation. Setting up the Steering Group is often the first stage of getting multi-disciplinary and organisational support for Schwartz Rounds. The Steering Group member role is described below.

The role	The Steering Group are 8-12 staff from multiple clinical and nonclinical disciplines. The Steering Group may be smaller depending on the size of the organisation.
	As the Schwartz Rounds for students is interprofessional, it helps if the group represent a wide number of healthcare programmes within the organisation. Examples include: medicine, clinical psychology, dentistry, nursing, occupational therapy, physiotherapy, diagnostic radiography, therapy radiography, physician associates and orthoptics.
	The Steering Group will help to champion the Rounds, find panellists and recruit audience members, so having well connected Steering Group members is useful.
Time	Each Steering Group member requires approximately half a day per month.
	This time is taken up primarily by attending a monthly meeting and the Round itself.
Responsibilities	To raise the profile of Rounds
	To share ownership of the Rounds
	To attend monthly Steering Group meetings
	To help find cases and panellists
	To support the Facilitator and Rounds Lead in their roles
	Debriefing the Round with the Rounds Lead and Facilitator
	To offer contributions in the Rounds to help encourage the discussion, and be available if challenging issues arise
	To ensure that Schwartz Rounds remain relevant over time.

Schwartz Round - Panellist

4 hours per round

Schwartz Rounds provide a structured forum where all staff, clinical and non-clinical, come together regularly to discuss the emotional and social aspects of working in healthcare. The panellist is integral to the success of a Round. The Schwartz Round - Panellist role is outlined below.

The role	The panellist role is to tell a story for up to five minutes, uninterrupted, on a pre-agreed theme for that Round.
Time	The panellist role requires approximately 4 hours per Round when they are a panel member for that Round. This time is taken up primarily by preparing their story and attending the Round.
Responsibilities	 The panellist works closely with the Facilitators. Their key duties are: To identify and reflect upon possible stories for the Round To attend a panel preparation meeting with the Facilitator(s) To craft and rehearse the chosen story in terms of its emotional focus To attend the Round as a panel member