You have my warmest congratulations. I have whole-hearted admiration for the determination and spirit you have shown to earn this award.

I sincerely hope that you have enjoyed your time here at Surrey. A university education opens the door to great opportunities, and I have no doubt that your qualification, together with the wealth of experiences you will have enjoyed during your time with us, will be of great value to you, both as you embark upon the challenges that await you in the next stage of your career and throughout your life.

I hope that you will continue to be as proud and supportive of us as we will be of you. We look forward to hearing of your achievements in the future – so do please keep in touch.

HRH The Duke of Kent KG GCMG GCVO
Chancellor

WELCOME FROM THE VICE- CHANCELLOR

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to this degree ceremony to celebrate the success and achievements of our graduating students. Today is a highlight of the academic year, and we are proud to share it with supportive families and friends.

Each of our graduands has a unique Surrey story to tell and yet they are all bonded by the same experience of achieving a qualification from the University of Surrey through hard work, tenacity, and perseverance.

They will now go on to enrich and strengthen our international community, well prepared to make a difference in the world - confident of being ready for anything and equipped with qualities of critical thinking, agility and creativity.

As a UK-leading university, we are committed to delivering tangible social, economic, and environmental impact through high-quality graduates and research. Our two pan-university, transdisciplinary Institutes for sustainability and people-centred AI represent our commitments to this mission. As we look forward to the future, I hope that all of our graduating students will feel proud to be associated with a university that acts as a real force for change.

Graduands - although your studies may be over, you will always be part of the Surrey family. Today you join more than 142,000 alumni, who support one another and make great contributions to society.

I wish you all the very best for the future. I hope you will leave Surrey with fond memories, lifelong friendships and a strong sense of pride. Wherever tomorrow and the rest of your life take you, remember that Surrey is your intellectual home, now and always.

WELCOME FROM THE EXECUTIVE DEAN

FACULTY OF HEALTH AND MEDICAL SCIENCES

Thank you all for being part of Surrey and lifelong members of The Faculty of Health and Medical Sciences. On this graduation day, we celebrate your hard work and achievements. Congratulations.

During your course you will have developed your ability to think critically and think differently. Through research projects, you will have worked alongside our academic staff, key leaders in their fields, to uncover new knowledge and learn about the importance of communicating scientific findings for the benefit of society.

Your approach to work and study will be founded on strong ethical principles. We are enormously proud of all our graduates; you are making a difference and driving impact in health and wellbeing all around the world. For those of you who have been on placement, worked in or volunteered to support our healthcare systems during the pandemic, we are immensely proud of you. Your effort will have made a difference to all those around you, thank you!

As a graduate from the faculty, please keep in touch with us and share your life journey. We aspire to continue our relationships with our alumni into the future and encourage you to play a role in shaping our graduates of tomorrow.

I am delighted to offer my heartfelt congratulations to all our students who are graduating today from the Faculty of Health and Medical Sciences. I wish you fulfilment and success in your future chosen careers.

Professor Paul A. Townsend
Pro-Vice-Chancellor and Executive Dean,
Faculty of Health and Medical Sciences

FACULTY OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Our faculty brings together subjects from across the arts, humanities, social and political sciences, business and economics, to create a community that is not only dedicated to the advancement of knowledge but who are empowered to question the world around them and apply their subject skills to shape the future.

These subjects are among the most crucial in solving some of the challenging issues we face today. For example, to address climate change, we need social and political scientists to assess society and develop measures to drive changes in people's behaviour. We need writers, performers, and artists to communicate complex issues and engage the public in change, and we need experts in business to design responsible and sustainable economic models.

Students at Surrey are not only dedicated to the study of their disciplines but live and apply them to the real world. For example, hospitality students are immersed in the running of our Lakeside Restaurant, and Law students provide free legal aid to the local community through our Access to Justice Clinic. This experience and way of learning sets Surrey graduates apart and uniquely positions them to take the next step in their lives, whether that be further study or pursuing their chosen career.

I'm proud to witness our students graduate today as knowledgeable, experienced, and resilient global citizens, ready to apply their subject skills in the real world to make positive contributions to society.

We wish all our graduands the very best for their exciting futures!

Professor Annika Bautz
Pro-Vice-Chancellor and Executive Dean,
Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences

GUEST SPEAKER

OLGA FITZROY – CEREMONY C

Award-winning recording and mixing engineer Olga FitzRoy graduated from the University of Surrey's Tonmeister course in 2005. Following a professional placement year at Sir George Martin's AIR Studios, she worked there for a decade upon graduating, with artists including Foo Fighters, Seasick Steve, and Hans Zimmer.

Now freelance, she has worked on TV scores such as The Crown with Martin Phipps, Doctor Who with Segun Akinola, and films Living, and Napoleon. Alongside her film and TV work, she has engineered for some of the world's biggest acts including Coldplay, Tony Christie, and Dua Lipa.

Olga is a prominent advocate on women's issues, with her campaign for Parental Pay Equality resulting in a new bill being debated in Parliament, and leading legal action on behalf of the charity Pregnant Then Screwed against the chancellor for discriminating against self-employed mothers during Covid.

As a board member of UK Music and the Music Producers Guild (2019-2022) she was instrumental in securing government support for recording studios to reopen safely after the pandemic, saving thousands of jobs in the industry.

She is also a Labour and co-operative councillor in Lambeth, where she lives with her husband and son.

A LITTLE HISTORY

NEARLY 60 YEARS OF SURREY DEGREES

The University of Surrey was established on 9 September 1966 with the grant of its Royal Charter, but its roots go back to 1891, when its forerunner Battersea Polytechnic Institute was founded to teach poorer London inhabitants. As its academic reputation grew, the renamed Battersea College of Technology moved to Guildford in the 1960s, where it became a university awarding its own degrees.

Since July 1970, by kind permission of the Dean and Chapter, degree conferment ceremonies have been held in Guildford Cathedral. On these occasions it is used as a secular building.

The mace

The University mace was designed and crafted by Desmond Clen Murphy and used ceremonially for the first time at the Installation as Chancellor of the Rt Hon the Lord Robens of Woldingham in 1966.

The mace is made of silver and walnut wood, with the shield of the University coat of arms on its head in colour, and with the shields of the coat of arms of Surrey County Council, Guildford Borough Council and Battersea Polytechnic Institute engraved in silver underneath. The embroidered coat of arms on the mace table, carried out in metallic thread, French knots, applied leathers and various materials, was created by Christine Habib, a former student of the Hampton School of Embroidery.

The mace was presented to Guildford Cathedral for permanent display on 13 July 1997.

The arms of the University of Surrey

The University of Surrey coat of arms commemorates the University's move from London to Guildford. The woolpacks on the shield are taken from the arms of the Borough of Guildford, while the blue and gold chequers and mantling are from the arms of the former Earls of Surrey. The swords, an allusion to the arms of the City of London, are taken from the shield of Battersea Polytechnic.

The blazon of the University's coat of arms, which was granted in 1966, is topped by a stag resting its right leg on an upturned key. The stag denotes the medieval royal hunting park on which our leafy Stag Hill site has been developed, while the key is a heraldic symbol of learning.

The coat of arms is an elegant symbol of our reputation and standing.

ACADEMIC DRESS

Every university has a distinctive set of academic robes for the degrees it awards and special ceremonial robes for the high officers of the university. The blue brocade that features in the hoods of all our robes is unique to Surrey and distinguishes us from other universities.
