Notes

- This policy is reviewed annually and is subject to change.
- The University is unable to guarantee the availability of any couple, family or staff accommodation.
- New students will only be allocated once they have accepted a formal offer of a place on a course, and if applicable, the University is in receipt of the requested academic fee deposit.
- Residents live in University accommodation under a standard licence agreement.
 - Students have their licence granted because of their intention to follow a course of study at the University. If they cease to follow a full time course of study at the University they will be required to leave residence. Students not eligible for accommodation include; those on their placement year, students who are part time, writing up, or resitting part of their course, those who are absent or withdrawn from their studies and occasional students. The university reserves the right not to accommodate a student based on outstanding debts or the outcome of previous disciplinary processes.
 - Staff have their licence granted because of their intention to undertake full time employment at the University. If they cease to be employed full time at the University they will be required to leave residence.
- The agreements will run from the date that the resident agrees to move in, and end in line with the academic year end date.
- Staff may give four weeks' notice to leave at any time. Notice must be given to Accommodation Services in writing.
